

Agenda	Cartoon of the Day-1.) Describe the cartoon in detail 2.) Identify a symbol & what it represents 3.) What message is the artist trying to convey? Explain. (3-5 complete sentences)
Monday:	I see two people who used to be in a relationship breaking up. I see that the woman is saying "I'm leaving you, Brad. I posted a TikTok video detailing all the reasons." I think the message the artist is trying to convey is that people post too much information about themselves onto the internet.
Tuesday:	I see a kid holding a gas canister asking for twenty bucks from an old woman who is reaching from her purse at her front door. I see that the kid may be trying to mow the old woman's lawn. I think the message the artist is trying to convey is that the prices of gas are affecting little kids' side jobs.
Wednesday:	I see an inflated Donald Trump fly up into the air. I see that his tie is tied on to a shopping cart while a man holds on to it. I see that the fat Trump has inflation written on his suit. I think the message the artist is trying to convey is that inflation is still continuing into Trump's presidency.
Thursday:	I see someone getting a diploma then getting a call that his job was taken by AI. I think the message the artist is trying to convey is AI is taking little kids' jobs in the future when they are graduating from their high school. There also could be a hidden meaning behind the diploma being made of paper.
Friday:	I see two bacterial looking organisms with one of them having hanta virus written on them and what is maybe the corona virus on the left. I see that the hanta virus is saying "I'm ready for my closeup." I think the message the artist is trying to convey is that the virus and corona virus are best buds who enjoy making people ill.
